

THE WELLMAN BABY

And other stories

By Mabel Glenhaber
and Alison Stillerman

$8

This book chronicles
the true stories of a summer
at Unitarian-Universalist camp, faithfully recounted with absolutely no exaggeration whatsoever.

The Wellman Baby	Pg. 3
Rocks in the Box (Part 1)	Pg. 11
Spitting Water	Pg. 13
Rocks in the Box (Part 2)	Pg. 21
Wild People	Pg. 23
The BFB	Pg. 29
About the Artists	Pg. 31

THE WELLMAN BABY

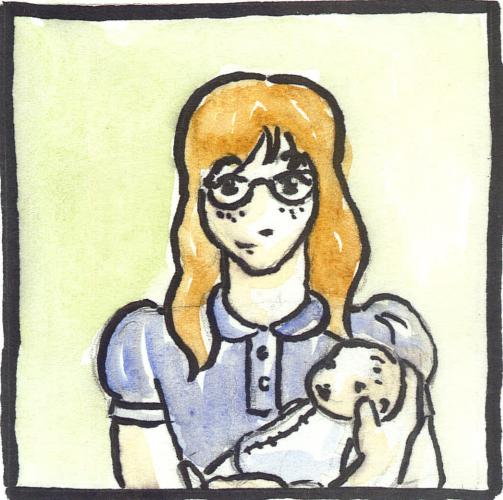

One day, we all piled into the car

and we went to the free store.

Audrey got a baby doll

Alexander got a brick.

I got a slipper shaped
like an owl.

We decided to mark
the doll as our own.

The next day

the baby was gone!

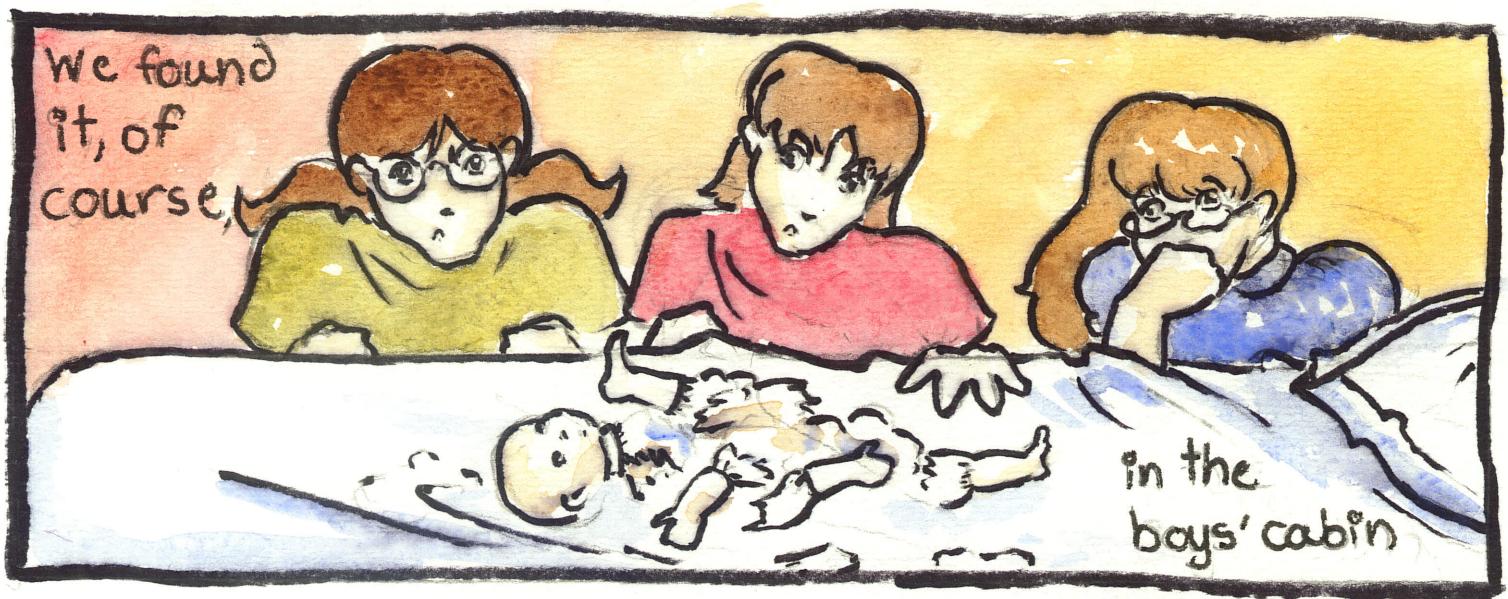

We found it,
of course,

in the boys' cabin

So we took it back

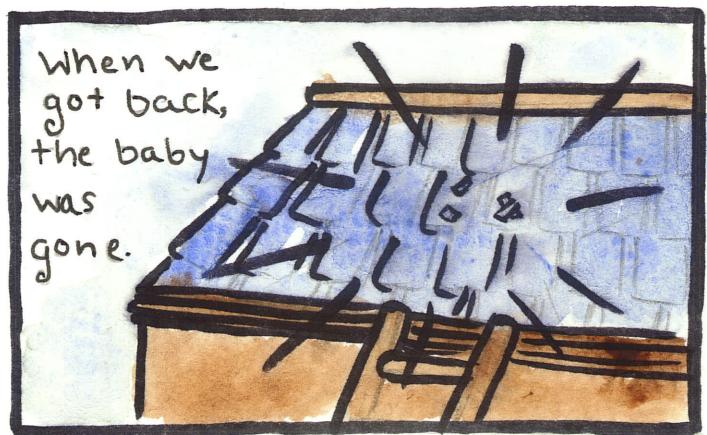

The next day

the baby was gone

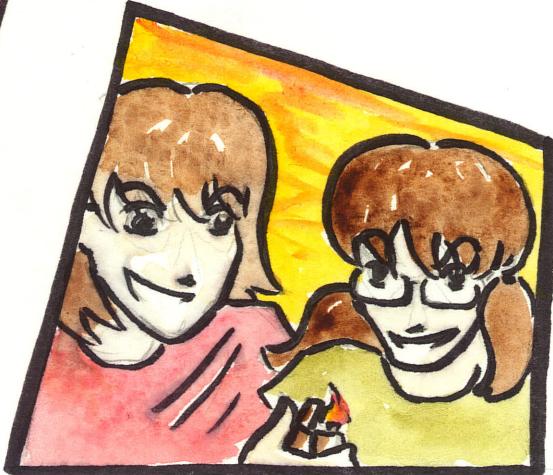

We found it,
of course.

in the
boys' cabin

So we took it back

So we took it back.

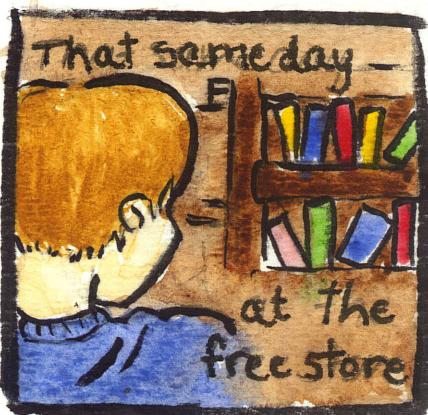

The End

ROCKS IN THE BOX

PART 1

But when we went over

Spitting Water

We were playing a game

You took a sip of water and the others tried to make you laugh

If you spat out
the water, then
you lost

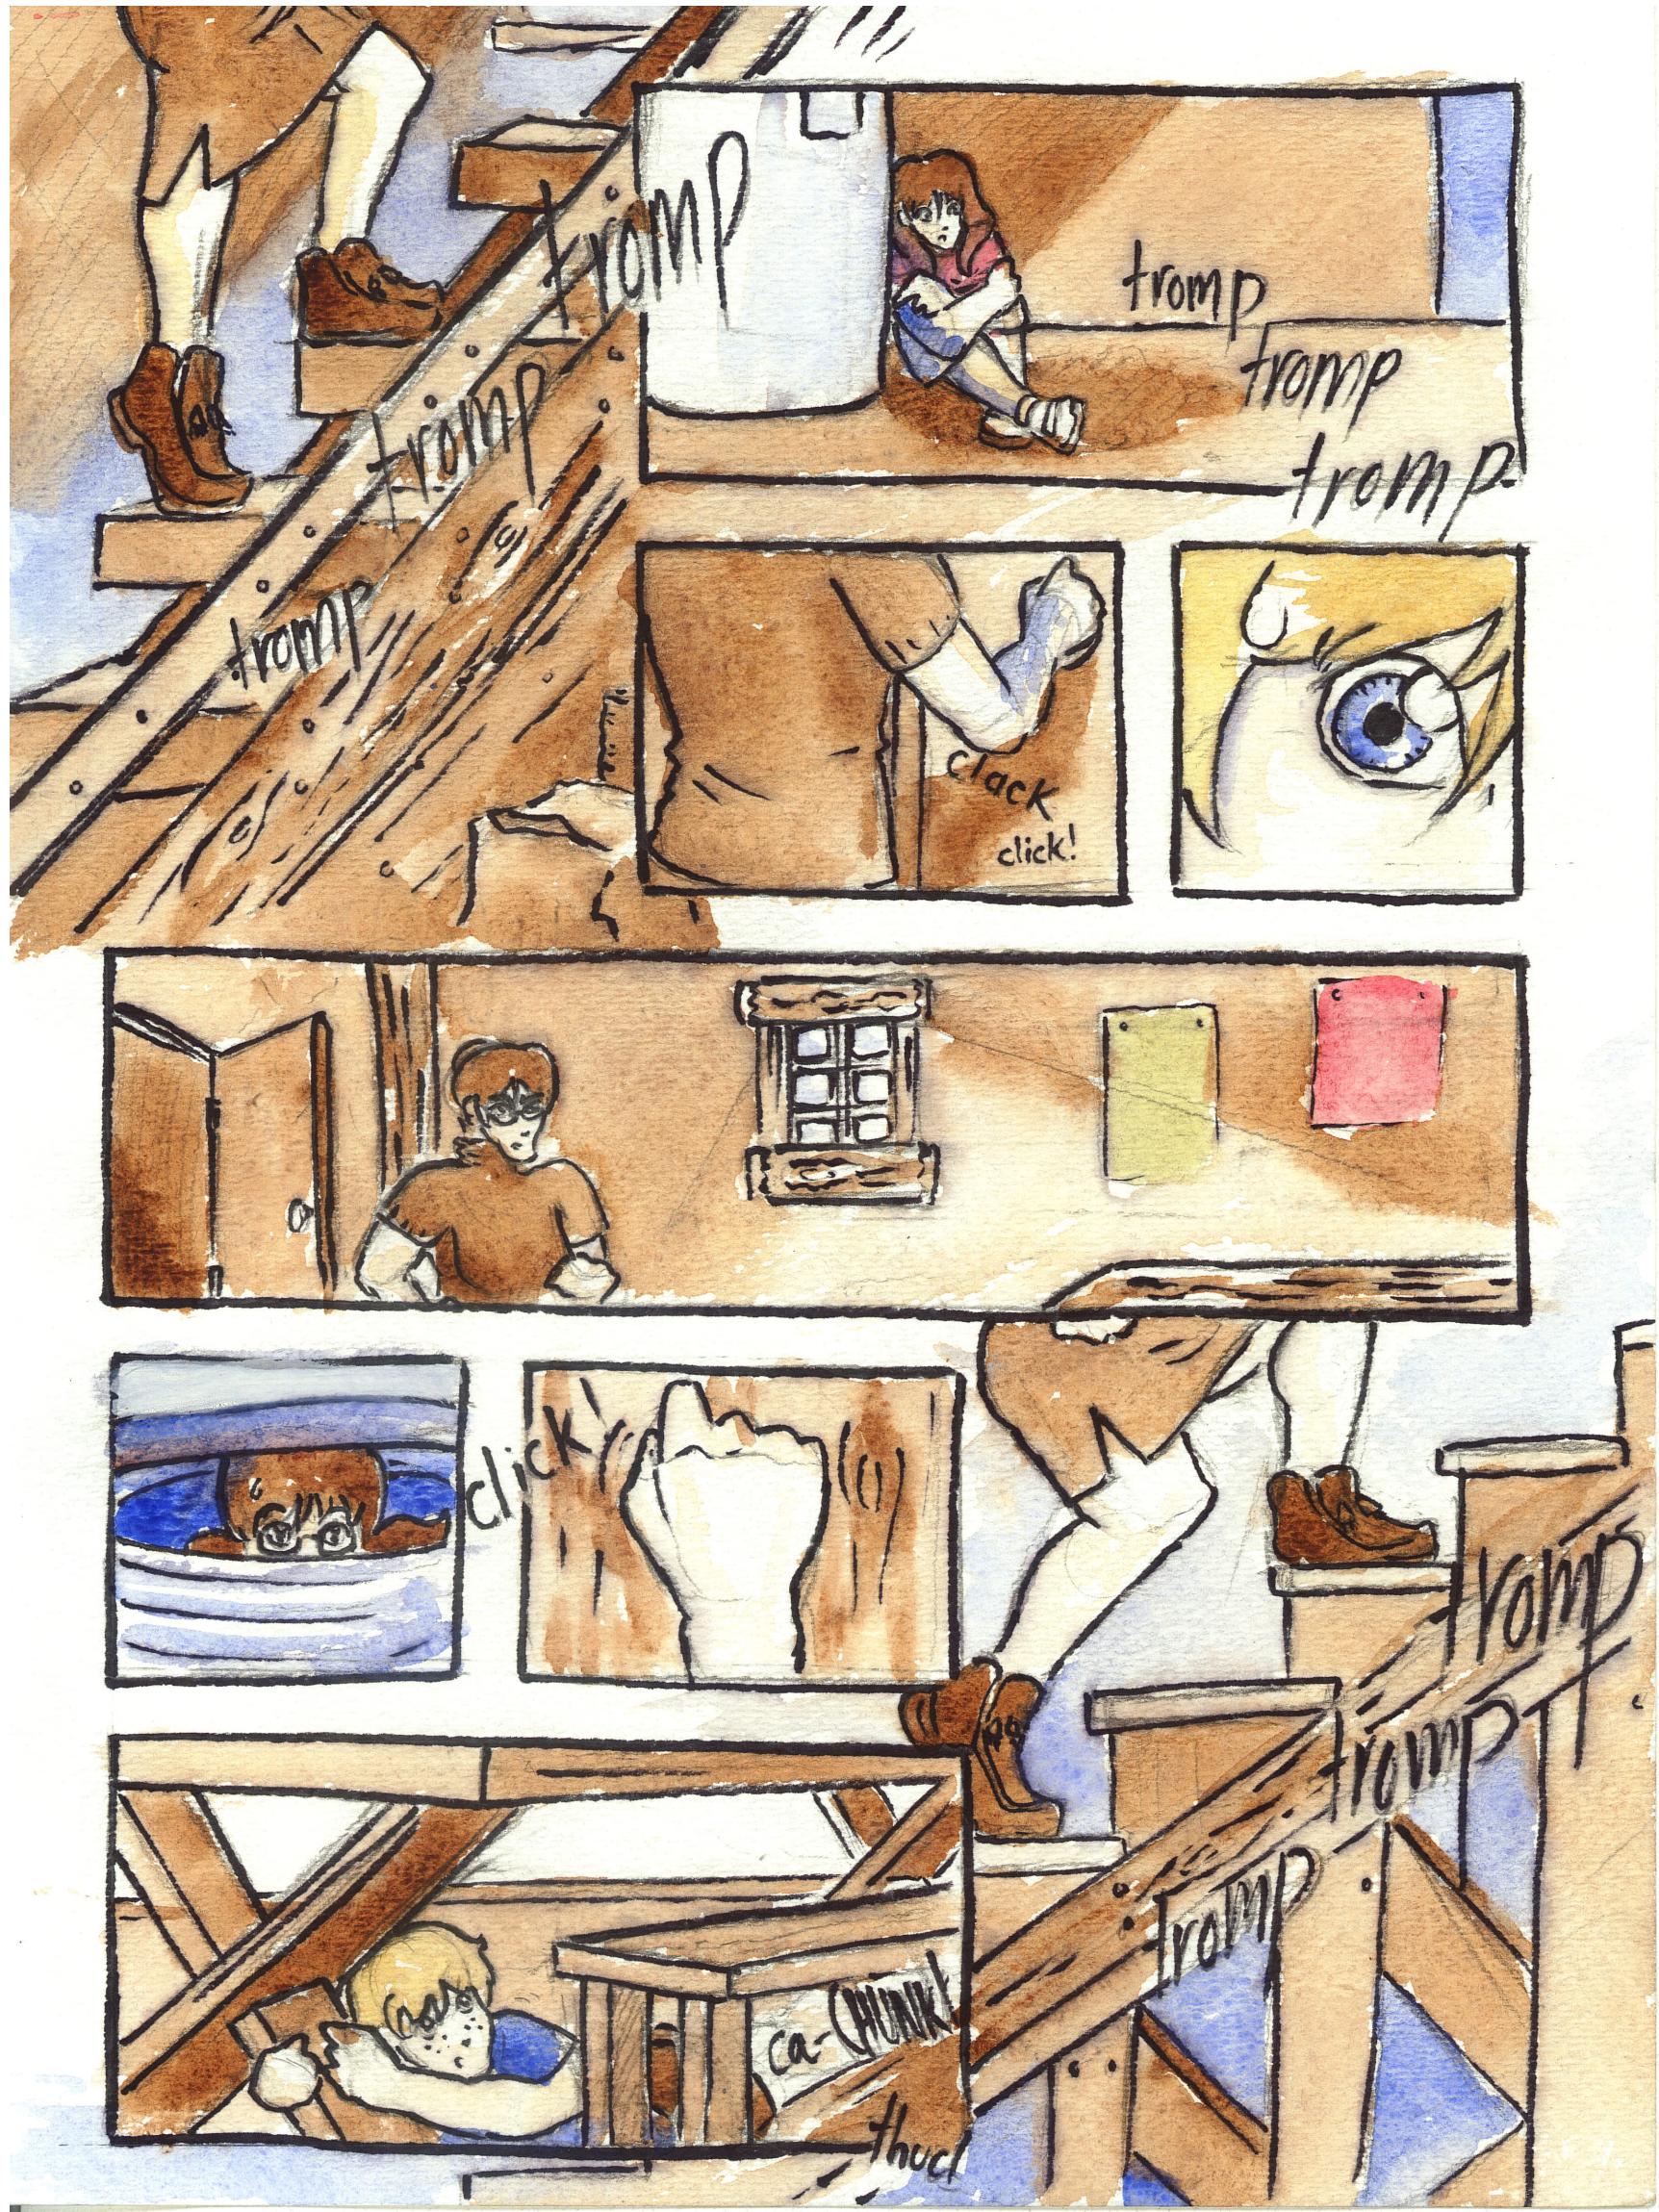

Just then, the camp director drove up

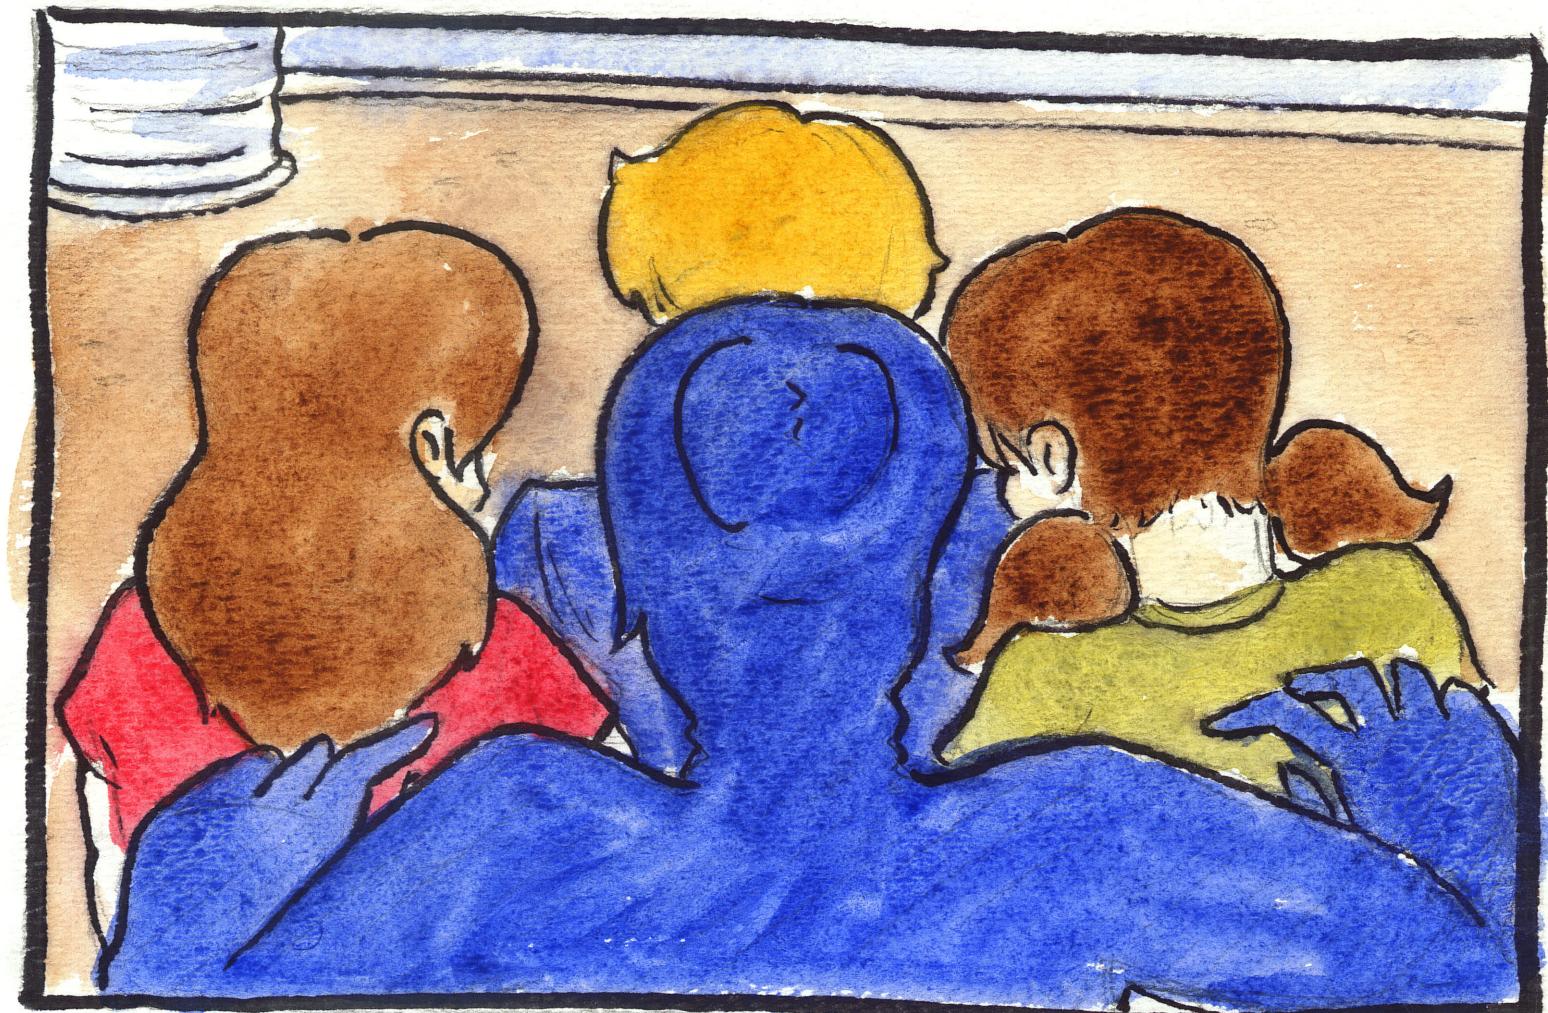

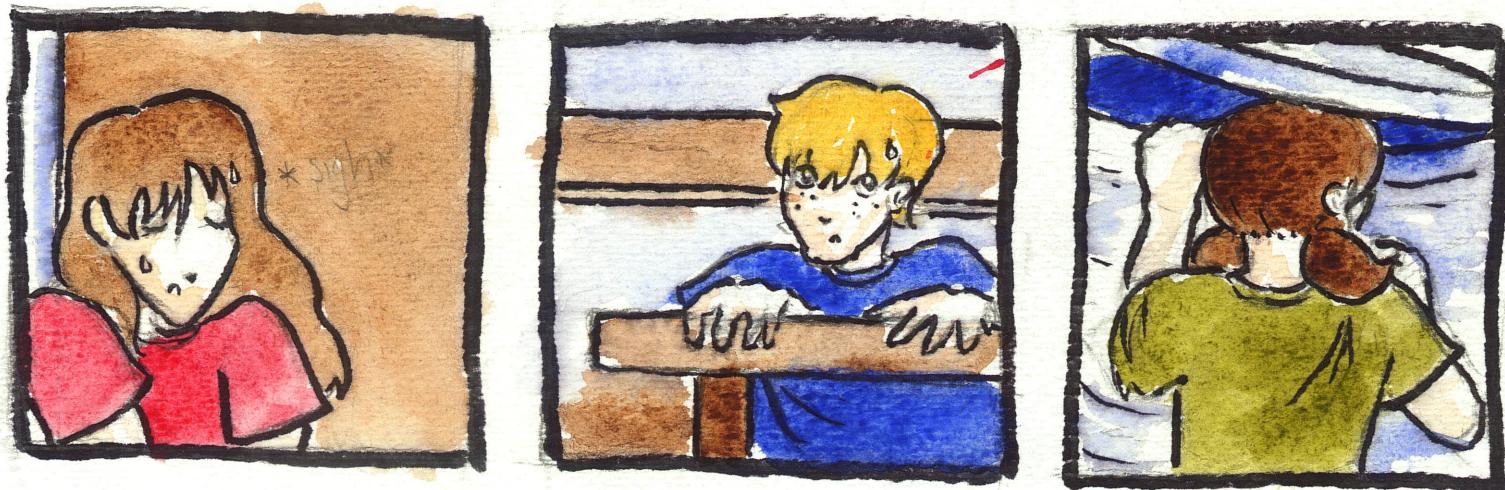

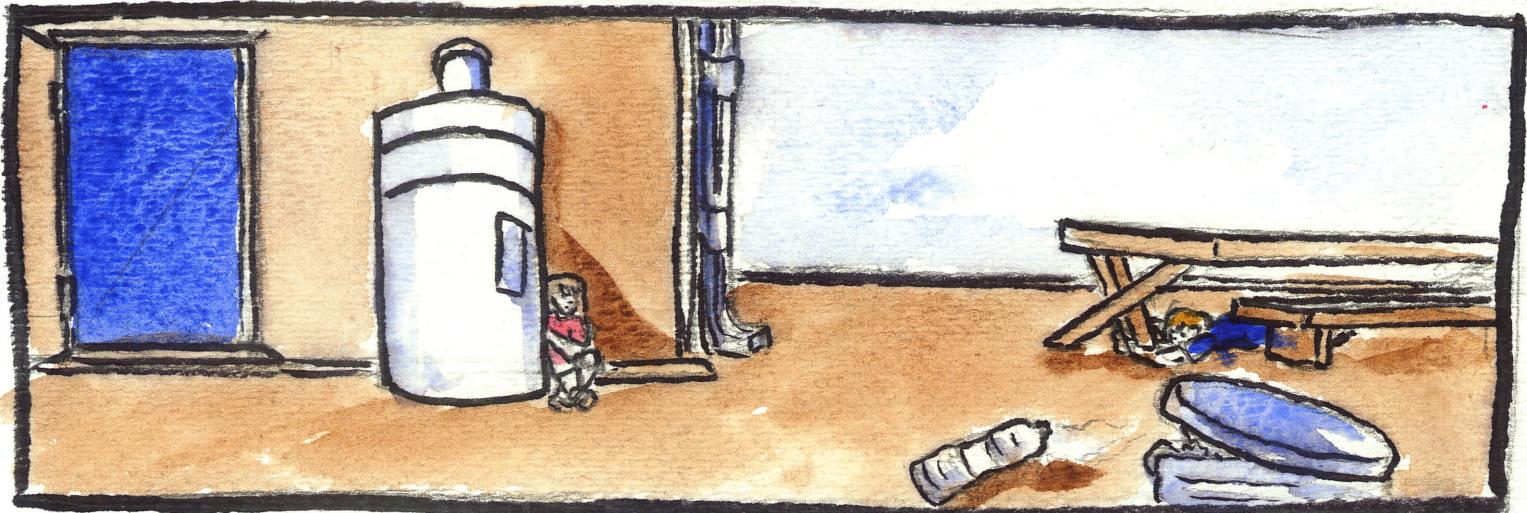

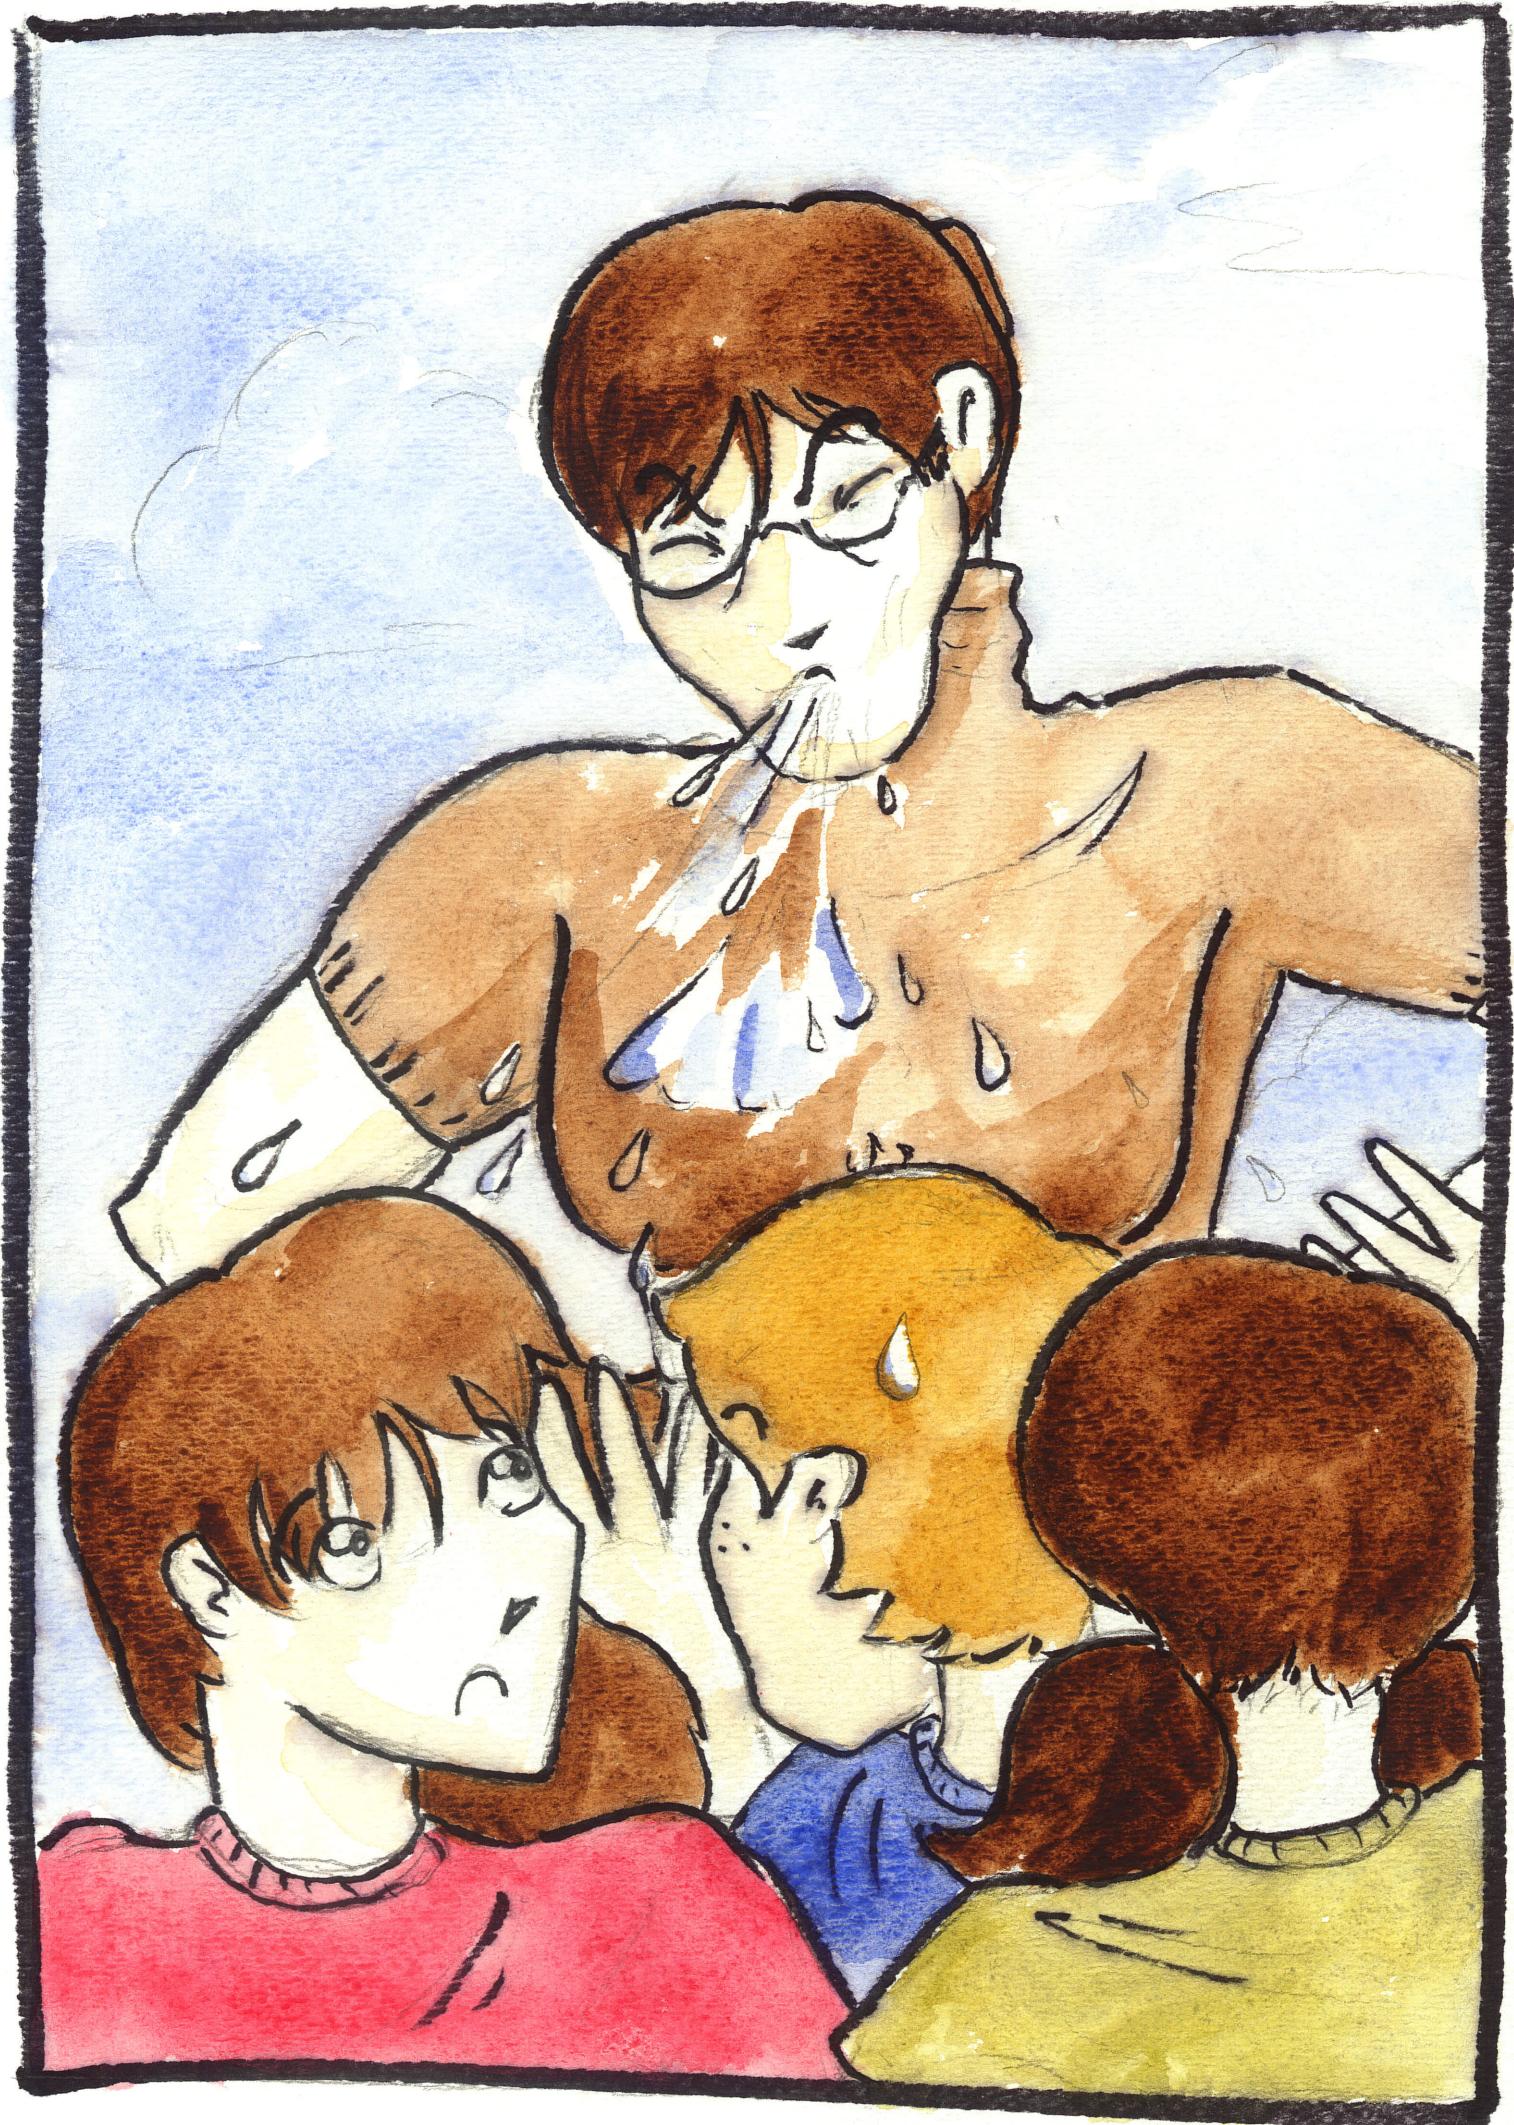

So we ran
for it

ROCKS IN THE BOX

PART

2

The car door
was open

When Tommy
got an idea

got their own box

So the counselors

WILD PEOPLE

One morning I was told to go to the bottom of the hill.

I met a counselor

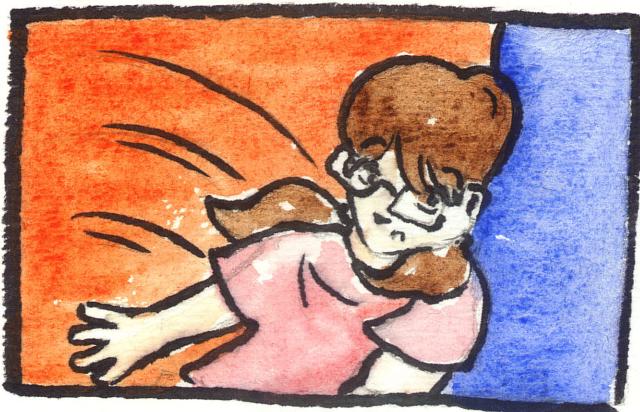

who said

On the way, I ran into the
counselor.

The counselor was...

screaming

...naked

and covered in

blue
paint.

And the counselor
said...

Give me
your bean.

That day, I became skilled in...

camouflage

strategy

teamwork

and backstabbing

I got 12 beans in the bowl that day.

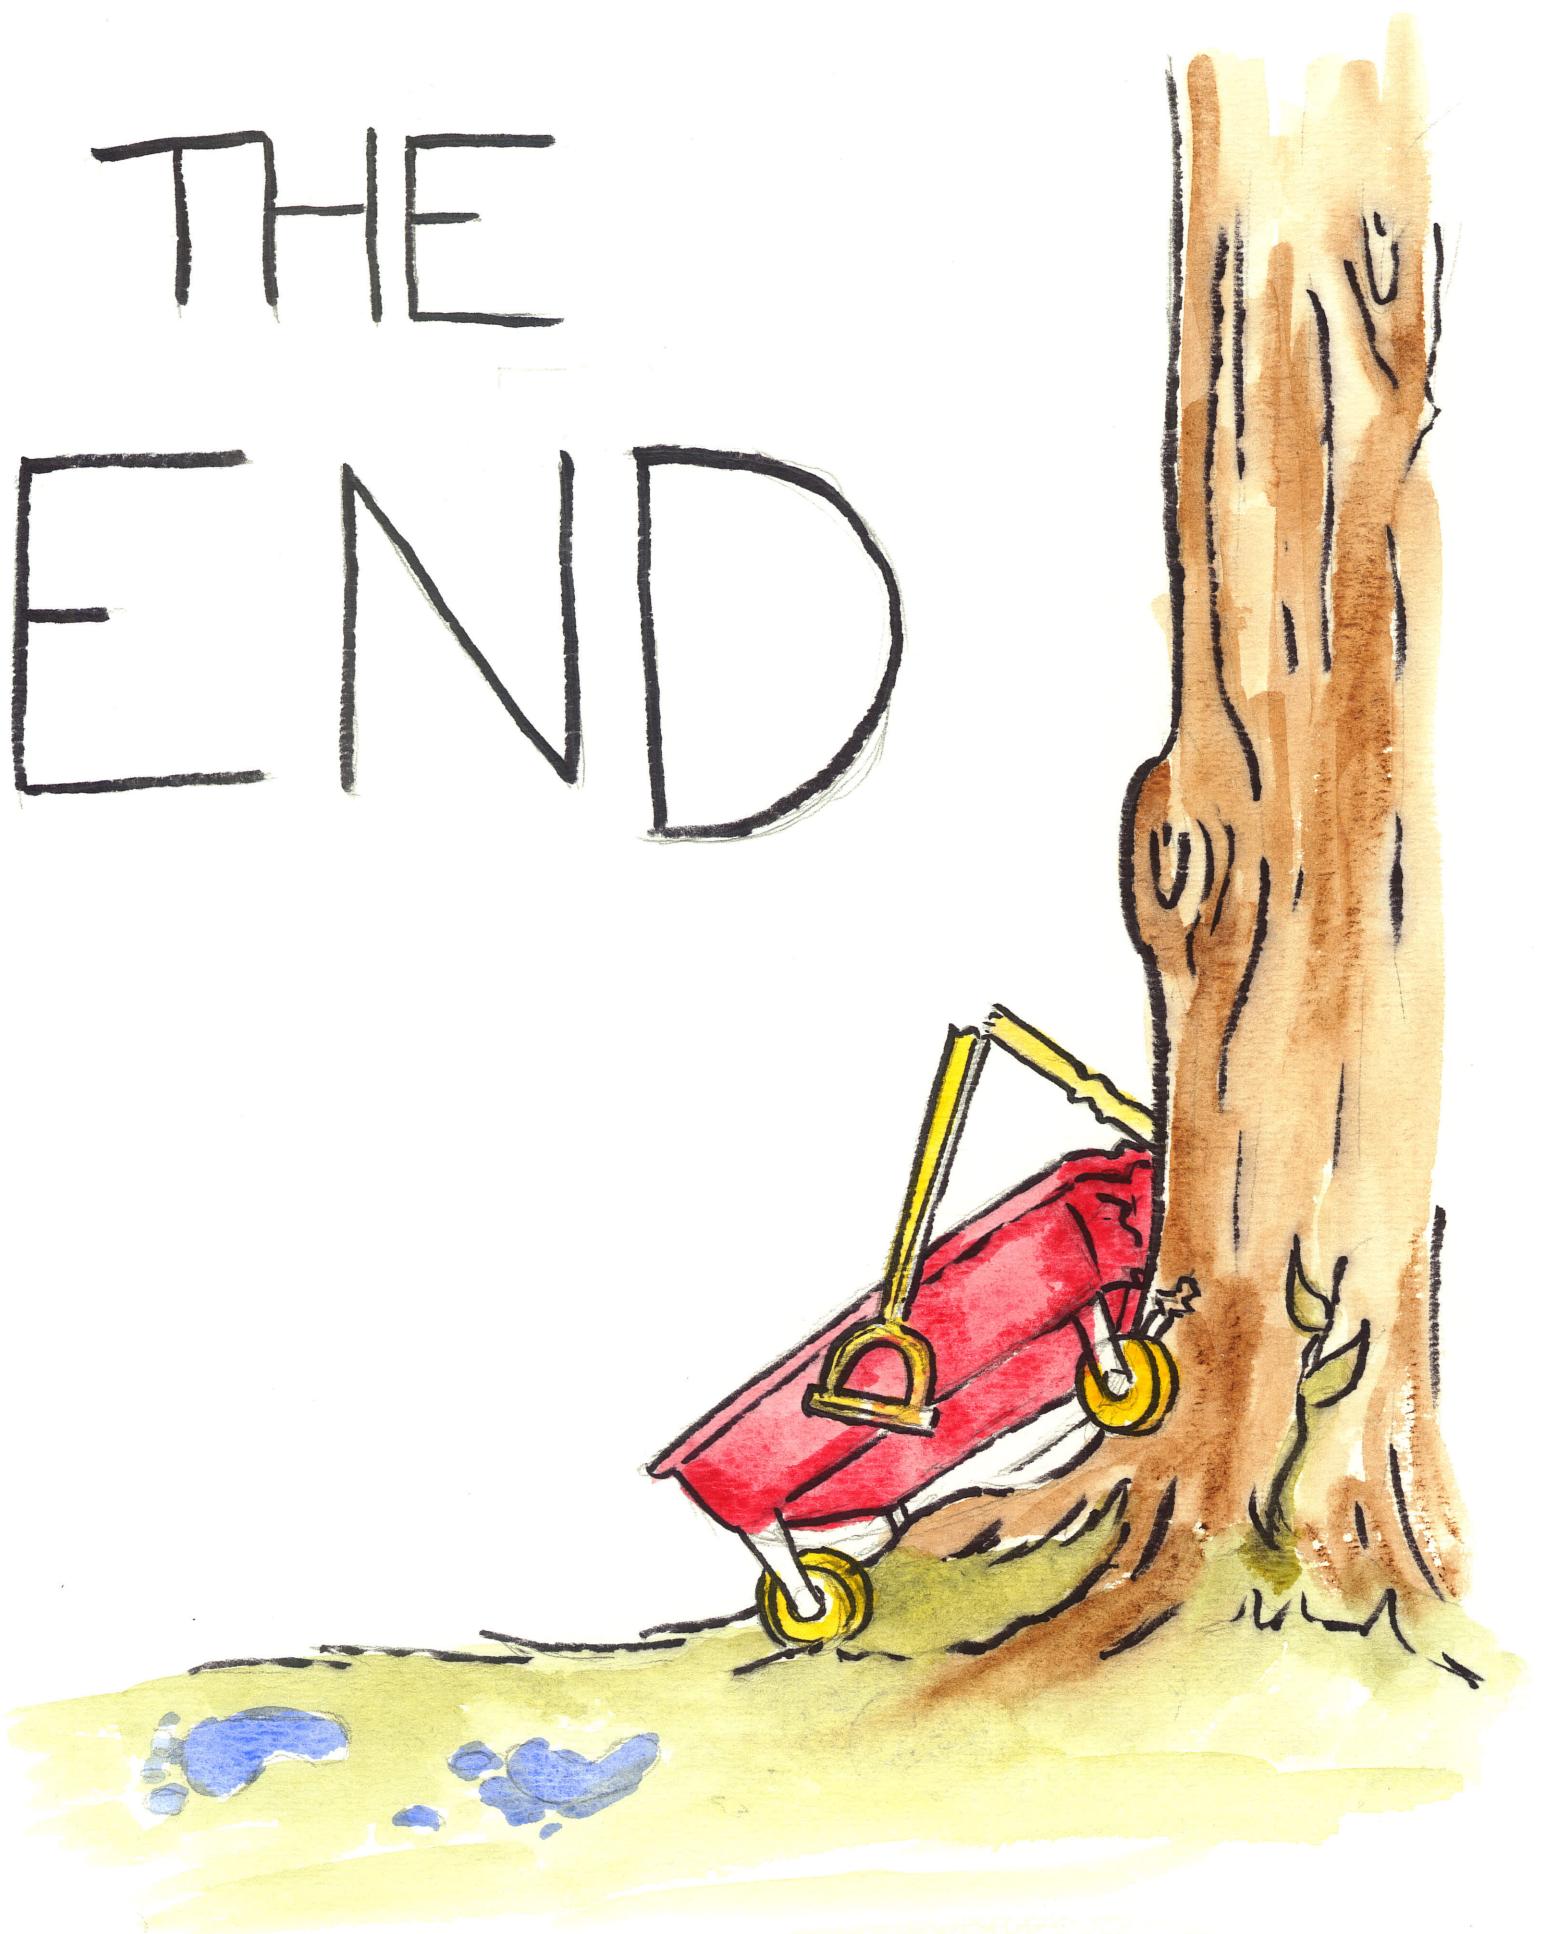

I still have the scars to prove it.

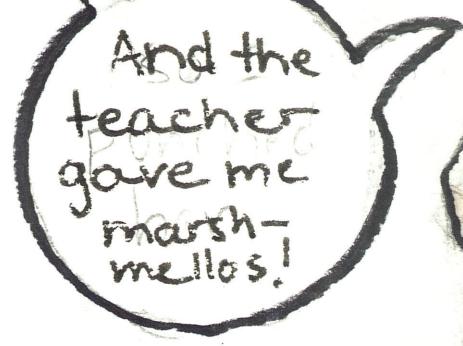

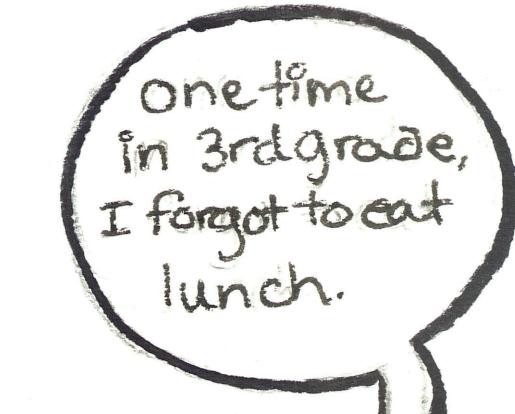

The BFB

THE
END

ABOUT THE ARTISTS:

Allison Stillerman
Co-writer, letterer

Mehitable Glenhaber
co-writer, artist,
letterer

opabpnia@mit.edu
topquarkintown.tumblr.com